ShareASale Exhibits at 2009 Affiliate Summit East

CHICAGO, September 3, 2009/PRNewswire/--ShareASale, an award winning affiliate marketing network, exhibited at the Affiliate Summit conference in New York City August 9 - 12. Affiliate Summit brings together a diverse group of affiliates, merchants, and vendors to network and attend sessions on a variety of industry topics.

The conference kicked off on Sunday with the Meet Market giving ShareASale a chance to share information about their services, while ShareASale merchants at the show promoted their products and discussed their affiliate programs. One highlight for ShareASale at the conference was their Sunday night party at the rooftop bar of the Empire Hotel in Manhattan. The breathtaking views of the city provided the perfect atmosphere for catching up with old friends and meeting new acquaintances.

The second and third days of the show in the exhibit hall allowed ShareASale to meet with merchants and affiliates interested in learning more about their platform. As always, the turnout was great on both days and valuable connections were made with existing and potential ShareASale clients. "I value the unique opportunity we have at this conference to meet with not only strong prospective clients, but also cultivate the relationships of our existing clientele", says Merchant Development Manager of ShareASale, Sarah Beeskow. "Things move fast in this business, so getting the time to sit down and listen to the needs that are out there is extremely valuable as we continue to enhance our product to provide the strongest performance marketing solution for our merchants and affiliate partners."

The next Affiliate Summit takes place in Las Vegas January 17-19, 2010.
